Christians Equipping Christians for Outreach Fellowship (CECO)

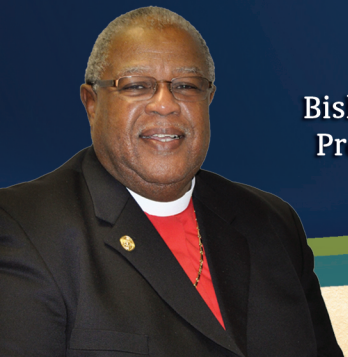

An Introduction to CECO

About Us

Christians Equipping Christians for Outreach (CECO) Fellowship was birthed as part of a God-inspired vision given to Bishop Russell Larry Freeman. Through the collective efforts of his spiritual sons, manifestation of the original vision occurred in February 2008. These great men of God, under the leading of the Holy Ghost, performed the necessary tasks which were needed to open the door for Bishop Freeman and United Community Cathedral. In this, CECO serves as a help and an encouragement to other ministries within the Kingdom of God.

These sons, along with their spiritual father, became the founding fathers of CECO – Bishop Russell Larry Freeman, Bishop Lester Woods, Jr., Bishop Herman Dean Ware, Jr., Bishop Darrell Dwayne Luther, Sr., Bishop Arnulfo Peat, Jr., and Overseer Todd Robinson. In August 2009, CECO's Fathers unanimously elected Bishop Freeman as the Presiding Prelate.

What you will find at the heart of CECO is "RELATIONSHIP"! We strive to help members strengthen their relationship with the Lord while also establishing healthy relationships with others in the Body of Christ.

Our Mission

In answering the Great Commission, Christians Equipping Christians for Outreach Fellowship will fulfill its mandate of ministry by equipping the Body of Christ to:

1. Establish Christian fellowship with a local and global reach.
2. Revive a Kingdom-mindset in the Church.
3. Strengthen its laity for excellence in every area of ministry.

CECO will accomplish this to the Glory and Honor of God.
